Hello From Us!

We are thrilled to share with you our upcoming calendar and program guide. SCWW is designed to inspire, engage, and energize seniors. Whether you're a seasoned SCWW participant or just thinking of joining, our diverse range of activities offers something for everyone.

But our program is about more than just activities; it's about building a vibrant community. Through teamwork, respect, and mutual support, we aim to foster connections that extend far beyond the "walls" of our program.

So, get ready to unleash your inner adventurer, unleash your creativity, and unleash the fun! Together, let's make every moment count and embark on an unforgettable journey of recreation and discovery. Welcome aboard!

Take some time to browse through the guide.

Community Etiquette

- Be aware of background noises.
- Allow every participant to contribute.
- Treat each other with dignity and respect.
- Do not interrupt when others are speaking.
- Let the facilitator guide and direct the group.
- Use *6 to mute and unmute yourself during a call.

SCWW Community Code of Conduct

We value and support diversity and the human rights of others regardless of their race, religion, gender identity, and sexual orientation. We strive for an inclusive environment, mutual respect, fairness, and equality. Please respect all group members and their opinions, even if you do not agree with them. No disrespectful comments will be tolerated.

Land Acknowledgement

We acknowledge that what we call Alberta is the traditional and ancestral territory of many peoples, presently subject to Treaties 6, 7, and 8. We acknowledge the many First Nations, Métis and Inuit who have lived in and cared for these lands for generations. We are grateful for the traditional Knowledge Keepers and Elders who are still with us today and those who have gone before us. We make this acknowledgement as an act of reconciliation and gratitude to those whose territory we reside on or are visiting.

Privacy Disclaimer

This program uses audio technologies for sessions rather than asking for participants to come into a building. We do our best to make sure that any information you give us during programs is private and secure, but no audio tools are ever completely secure. Some sessions may be recorded - we will request permission at the beginning of sessions. Recordings may be re-played throughout our series.
