Hello From Us!

As winter rolls in, we're excited to share a new season of programs to brighten the months ahead and bring people together.

Everything we offer is designed with inclusivity in mind, welcoming people of all backgrounds, abilities, and experiences. Whether you want to learn something new, meet others, or just enjoy a comfortable, friendly space, there's something here for you.

We hope this guide helps you find programs that spark your interest, start good conversations, and make you feel at home. Thanks for being part of our diverse and welcoming community. Stay warm, stay connected, and we look forward to spending this season with you.

Just for fun: each picture on the cover represents a program that we are offering this season. Let us know as you figure them out!

Join us for the Program Preview!

SCWW Advisory Group

In each series, we've got a feedback program run by Karoline. It's all about getting your thoughts on what we offer. We love hearing from you, and your feedback helps shape our future plans. Here are some questions we'll be asking:

- What do you like about our program?
- What could we do better?
- Any ideas for new programs?

Can't wait to see you on January 28th at 1 PM!

SENIORS' CENTRE WITHOUT WALLS

Community Etiquette

- Be aware of background noises.
- Allow every participant to contribute.
- Treat each other with dignity and respect.
- Do not interrupt when others are speaking.
- Let the facilitator guide and direct the group.
- Use 6 to mute and unmute yourself during a call.

SCWW Community Code of Conduct

We value and support diversity and the human rights of others regardless of their race, religion, gender identity, and sexual orientation. We strive for an inclusive environment, mutual respect, fairness, and equality. Please respect all group members and their opinions, even if you do not agree with them. No disrespectful comments will be tolerated.

Land Acknowledgement

We acknowledge that what we call Alberta is the traditional and ancestral territory of many peoples, presently subject to Treaties 6, 7, and 8. We acknowledge the many First Nations, Métis and Inuit who have lived in and cared for these lands for generations. We are grateful for the traditional Knowledge Keepers and Elders who are still with us today and those who have gone before us. We make this acknowledgement as an act of reconciliation and gratitude to those whose territory we reside on or are visiting.

Privacy Disclaimer

This program uses audio technologies for sessions rather than asking for participants to come into a building. We do our best to make sure that any information you give us during programs is private and secure, but no audio tools are ever completely secure. Some sessions may be recorded - we will request permission at the beginning of sessions. Recordings may be re-played throughout our series.
